

Please do not water down Indiana's no call law. I used to get 10-15 calls per week and hated to answer the phone. Since the law went into effect, I now get less than one per month. This law works well and should not be diluted. Thank you.